Lebanon Police Department to Offer Women's Self-Defense Classes

The Lebanon Police Department is offering self-defense classes to interested women.

The course, Rape Aggression Defense (R.A.D.), is the largest women's self-defense program in the country. It offers no-nonsense, practical techniques that women of all ages and abilities can participate in. The course is designed to give the participants realistic and dynamic hands on training.

The course is taught by certified R.A.D. instructors, Lieutenant Scott Rathburn, Corporal Gerald Brown and Officer Peter Begin, from the Lebanon Police Department.

There is no cost for the program and class sizes will be limited to 20. It is encouraged that you be able to attend all four of the basic R.A.D. classes. We will be offering a class from 6:00pm to 9:00pm at the CCB on the following dates:

Tuesday, July 7
Thursday, July 9
Tuesday, July 14
Thursday, July 16

We will also be offering an Advanced R.A.D. class, Knife and Gun Defense. You must have completed the basic R.A.D. course in order to participate. This will be a one-time class on Wednesday, July 22 from 6:00pm to 9:00pm at the CCB.

If you would like to participate in these classes or would like further information, please contact (603) 448-8800. For more information on R.A.D., visit their website at rad-systems.com
